THE ROAD LESS TRAVELLED

Info-Pack

SUMMARY of the Project

Migration has been at the top of the EU political agenda and during the years national policies have shifted from “open borders” to countries becoming less welcoming. These issues are not only an EU phenomenon.

The key to inclusion is interaction that enables migrants to engage with people in the receiving society. Orton (2012), says that “migrants have an essential role to play and we cannot afford to allow the advocates of racism and intolerance undermine our democratic values and negate the human dignity we owe to everyone. Promoting interaction between migrants and host societies will help break down barriers.”

Statistics by the Eurostat show that most migrants are youngsters. Thus, youth organizations and youth workers, have a lot to offer towards the inclusion process of these migrants. Thanks to this project, youth workers/leaders will be in a better position to understand what makes migrants leave their home, what are they facing through the voyage, what difficulties they endure while trying to be included in the new society and also how they as youth workers can facilitate integration.
